

What if your to-do list could call you?

Every productivity tool ever built has one fatal flaw - it waits for you. Dialer.best doesn't wait. It calls.

Procrastination wins because nothing fights back

Every tool you use today is passive.

Procrastination is active. That's why it wins.

- Notifications are ignored in 3 seconds
- Task apps require you to open them first
- No tool has ever called you out - literally

Multiple calls. Zero excuses.

It's not one reminder. It's a system. A loop that tightens around every task until it's done

- Morning - You commit out loud to your tasks
- Follow ups - The AI checks in, no task escapes
- Day Close - Your report holds up a mirror to your day

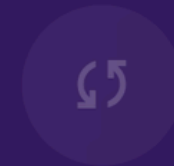

Voice Scheduling

Just talk naturally. The AI parses your tasks, deadlines, and notes — all through conversation.

Morning Call

The AI calls you at your set time. Plan your day, set priorities, and commit to tasks.

Smart Follow-ups

The AI calls you back at intervals until tasks are completed. Persistent accountability.

Daily Report

End-of-day summary. Tasks completed, hours logged, progress tracked. Full transcripts available.

Built for one purpose - to destroy delay.

Every feature is engineered to remove the gap between intention and action.

- Voice Calls - Pressure you can't swipe away
- Auto Task Parsing - No friction to add tasks
- Persistent Follow-ups - AI never forgets.
- Call Transcripts - Your words, your commitments, on record
- Daily Score - A procrastination rating that stings

How it works?

Onboarding-Flow

- Step 1 - Enter name + US phone number
- Step 2 - Set your morning call time
- Step 3 - Phone rings. Day begins.
- No manual task entry. No tutorial. No setup friction.

AI: Hey, Tenvir. It's Jessica from dialer dot best. Ready to plan out your day?

User: Hello?

AI: Morning. I see you've already lined up a couple of tasks for today.

User: Hello?

AI: Hey, Tanvir. Good morning. I can see you've already got some tasks lined up for the day, which is awesome. Let's quickly go over them. First up, you've got to fix your laptop. Screening keyboard work, which you've estimated will take about 3 hours, Then there's ad campaign research for 1 of your products, also estimated at 3 hours.

User: Okay.

AI: Are there

User: Okay. Alright. Listen listen to my thing. I want another task to be sch for today, and it is simple to create a bank account being 1 of US bank products. So can you schedule it for me and, uh, know the time

AI: Got it. So we're adding a new task. Create a bank acco

User: for your product. And it'll take about 3 hours. What n this?

User: Yes. I think it will be medium prior

AI: This will just take a sec.

AI: Hold on a sec.

AI: This will just
